

Y6 Curriculum Nov 2017

WOW events in red	A1	A2	Sp1	Sp2	Su1	Su2
Creative Curriculum topic question	Why is our school called Spindle Point?	Who are the Mayans and what did we learn from them?		Are Americans really living the dream?	Would you compete in the Ancient Greek Olympics?
Literacy	Poems Traditional tales: Parodies/Flashbacks Book focus- Carrie's War	Biographies Spy thriller Stuart Reid 16.1.17	Poems on an issue Horror SPAG focus Book focus- David Walliams	Formal language- Persuasive, Newspaper	Balanced arguments Y6 production	Author focus End of year production
Maths	Numbers to 10 million X and divide Fractions	Decimals Measurement Word problems	statistics		Revision	Revision – preparing for Year 7
Science	Animals including humans	Evolution Inheritance	Electricity Bright Sparks	Living things and habitats	Revisions/Bridging curriculum gaps
History	Local area	Mayan civilization (linked to comparison to local area in A1 geog)	Mayan civilization		Ancient Greece →
Geography	Compare local areas – resources, trade, land use (compare Kearsley (historical and present day and UK and Mexico- then link to Mayans in A2 hist) Coal Mining Museum	→		America : specific Rivers	"
Computing	Online Safety	Digital Literacy	Computer Science Minecraft day	→	Information Technology	Digital Literacy
PE- FUNDA	Gymnastics Bikeability	Invasion games Dance	Invasion games Gymnastics	Striking & fielding Cricket Coach	Net/wall Athletics Residential – Anderton Centre	Athletics Dance
RE	Key Hindu beliefs	Saint Paul Christmas	Passover	Courage	Christian traditions and rituals	Muslim values
DT		Enterprise- xmas cards			Super buggies	Food- Greek banquet
Art	Harvest festival- oil pastels	Drawing- Mexican masks	Mayan idols-clay work			3D -Greek pottery Printing- Ancient Greek patterns and scenes
Music	Creating harmony using rounds	Exploring sound sources and electronics	Exploring lyrics and melody	Song writing	Performing together	Performing together End of year production
French	All elements taught throughout the year Understand main points/opinions in a spoken story or piece. Understand longer and more complex sentences. Initiate and sustains conversation. Tell stories. Read and understand some detail from short texts. Write sentences on a range of topics using a model. Use appropriate punctuation. Understand some elements of grammar. Learn about French traditions and culture.					